

exhibitions or amusements within the town and within one mile thereof; to regulate and tax dogs, and in all cases when the public safety may so require, to prevent them from going at large; to regulate and prevent horses and hogs from going at large in the town; to pass all ordinances necessary for paving or otherwise improving and keeping in repair the streets, lanes, alleys and footways thereof, and to lay and collect an equal tax upon the personal and real estate within the corporation, for all purposes necessary for carrying into effect the by-laws and ordinances of the town.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 11, sec. 62.

118. They may, subject to the approval of the burgess, provide by ordinance for making a new assessment of all the real and personal property in the town as often as it may seem necessary; and may pass all ordinances necessary to give effect and operation to all the powers vested in the corporation.

Ibid. sec. 63.

119. They shall not levy a tax exceeding twenty cents on the hundred dollars of assessable property in any one year.

Ibid. sec. 64.

120. They may direct, by ordinance, all or any of the footways in the town to be laid off and levelled, paved, curbed and mended, with any material which to them may seem best, at the expense of the proprietors of the different lots, or portions of lots, in front of which the burgess and commissioners shall direct the same to be done.

Ibid. sec. 65.

121. If the owner of any house, lot, or part of a lot, where such levelling, curbing, paving or mending shall be directed to be done, shall not reside in said town, the tenant or person occupying the same, or who has charge thereof, shall cause the same to be done in front of such possession, and the money expended by such tenant or other person in and about said work, in obedience to the ordinance of the corporation, shall be allowed by the owner, and deducted from the rent due or to become due.